

DON'T LOSE YOUR BEER SALES ON OCTOBER 1

RETAILERS ARE AT RISK OF NOT HAVING BEER
SALES ON OCT. 1 BECAUSE THEY HAVEN'T
RECEIVED THEIR NEW LICENSES!

TO SELL BEER AS OF OCT. 1, 2018, BEER RETAILERS MUST HAVE:

CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE

3.2 beer retailers must receive a new Certificate of Compliance from your municipality to be properly zoned to sell strong beer as of Oct. 1, 2018.

INTERIM RETAIL LICENSE

3.2 beer retailers must have an Interim Retail License from ABLE to sell ANY beer as of Oct. 1, 2018.

WITHOUT THEM, YOU CANNOT SELL ANY BEER

Hundreds of beer retailers are experiencing delays up to 6 weeks to receive their approved local certificate and state license. Your customers will want to purchase cold, strong beer at the start of beer modernization. Make sure you have cold, strong beer for them!

HOW TO APPLY FOR YOUR CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE

Every municipality handles Certificates of Compliance differently; however, you can follow the below steps as a guide through the process:

- 1 Call or visit your municipality government office to find the local Certificate of Compliance application.
- 2 Secure the correct signatures from the required officials, such as zoning, fire marshal, health, etc., to complete the certificate application.
- 3 Submit your application to your municipality for approval.
- 4 Have the city or municipality send the approved certificate to the ABLE Commission to receive your Interim Retail License.*

*The ABLE Commission will not issue the Interim Retail License until they have received the approved Certificate of Compliance; however, if there are local delays, the ABLE Commission can begin to process your Interim Retail License application upon receipt of a temporary certificate.
